

Welcome to
Haus Saron

Hello!

On behalf of all our employees, we would like to welcome you. We are pleased that you are with us.

Actually, it was supposed to be a sawmill. But the owner went bankrupt when the foundation walls of the building were barely standing. Employees of the “Süddeutschen Gemeinschaftsverband” who dealt with questions of Christian leisure work among urban children and were looking for a suitable bible, leisure and recreation centre learned about this.

This is how the long and blessed history of our house began in 1925. Many guests went in and out in the last decades. Since then, of course, a lot has happened and over the years all the houses have been renovated again and again and the outdoor area has been beautified and made more guest friendly.

Today you can enjoy your stay in a modern equipped guest and conference center, which has a rich history and was already a resting place for thousands of people.

We wish you a pleasant stay and a blessed time in Wildberg!

The following pages will give you interesting information about our houses and the surrounding area. Get to know us and our romantic town better.

Experience and enjoy the excitement with which we are your hosts.

Matthias Bosch
Housemanager

By the way, Saron is mentioned in the Bible in several places in the Old Testament (Song of Songs, 1. Chronicle, Isaiah) and in the New Testament (apostle history) and is a very fertile and magnificent plain in Israel. It stretches from the sea of Japho to Mount Carmel.
